

Fund Administration Services

Widely regarded as a leading international financial centre, the Isle of Man is rapidly becoming the jurisdiction of choice for the private or institutional client, fund promoter or sponsor looking to establish, manage or administer an investment fund.

Attracted by its flexible and modern regulatory regime the Island's industry can provide services to a variety of fund types such as hedge funds, property funds, limited partnerships, listed companies and other alternative investment funds.

Through our Group Company, SMP Fund Services Ltd, we can provide fund administration services to a wide range of Isle of Man or Caribbean funds such as:

- Regulated funds
- Unregulated funds
- Private funds

A dedicated and experienced team of accountants, securities institute and company secretarial personnel apply an unrivalled level of client care in offering a professional fund administration solution.

From the most straightforward investment fund to a complex multi-currency, multi-class fund, SMP Fund Services provide a broad range of services:

- Assisting with the establishment of the fund and associated corporate vehicles
- Structuring and tax advice/liaison with lawyers and auditors
- Maintaining statutory records, provision of corporate officers and company secretarial services
- Transfer agency services including the organisation of meetings, their notices, distribution of financial statements etc
- NAV calculation and publication
- Regulatory and FATCA/CRS reporting
- Preparation of financial statements

In utilising the complementary services of our Group's company secretarial, VAT & tax consultancy, accounting and legal teams, the Fund Administration team delivers a cost effective, high quality solution. With established relationships with functionaries to the Fund industry – custodians, managers, trustees, auditors – both on and off Island, we can offer a comprehensive, bespoke service.
